

HYMN OF LISBON MARU / SOON WE MEET AGAIN

<Verse 1>

All my trials are over now
Far from the madding crowd
Silence and total calm
Finally come

<Verse 2>

You find the promised land
A lullaby once we sang
Those dare to dream, sky is blue
Happens to be true

<Chorus>

Remember the special day
We met, we embraced
We fell in love, soon we come to know
You were my life, my soul
The day I was sent away
We talked, knelt down to pray
Till we part, you held me tight
We laughed, we cried, through the night
Come what may, we pledged then
Soon we meet again

<Verse 3>

No rich and no poor now
The same we are proud
No country, no religion
No division

<Verse 4>

O'er the rainbow blue birds fly
Clear air, a perfect sky
Tree of life, where it stands
Soon we meet again

<Chorus>

Remember the special day
We met, we embraced
We fell in love, soon we come to know
You were my life, my soul
The day I was sent away
We talked, knelt down to pray
Till we part, you held me tight
We laughed, we cried, through the night
Like yesterday, there and then
Soon we meet again

Feb 23, 2007

composed by Frank Roy and Ian Parkinson; lyrics by Franklee Speaking